SITUATION
INTERESTING

Much Depends on Outcome of Games Today in Matter of Championship.

Today's baseball program promises well. The Kams and Diamond Heads meet in the early game and the Saints and Puns in the later. Both games should be keenly contested for the Kams and Diamond Heads are but one game apart and the result of today's playing will have a material bearing on the winning of the second half. The game between the Puns and Saints will also be of much significance. Should the Saints lose it will be a heavy setback for them. From last week's games it is difficult to make a forecast.
The Kams beat the Saints and the Puns beat the Diamonds; now the question is can the two repeat their victories?
If they can the Saints, Diamond Heads and Kams will be tied for first honors.
In this event the Kams will have decidedly the best of the fight; they will have two games to play with the Puns, while the Saints and Diamond Heads will have to play each other two games.
To summarize:

POSITION OF THE TEAMS TODAY.

	Won.	Lost.
Saints	4	2
Diamonds	4	2
Kams	3	3
Puns	1	5

Should the Kams and Puns win today, the standing will be:

	Won.	Lost.
Saints	4	3
Diamonds	4	3
Kams	4	3
Puns	2	5

Games to be played to close the series are:

Aug. 17.—Kams vs. Puns; Saints vs.
Diamond Heads.
Aug. 24.—Kams vs. Puns; Saints vs.
Diamond Heads.

In the event of the Kams and Puns each winning one of these games and the Saints and Diamond Heads also each winning one game, the three teams will be tied for the second half. But should the Kams win both games from the Puns, either the Saints or the Diamond Heads must win both games to tie. Should they split even the Kams would win. The result will be watched with much interest.

BUNTS AND SQUEEZES

The Kams seem to have the Indian sign on the Saints.

Today's games will be fought out to a finish.

The Kams are out for the Diamonds' scalps and must annex the game today to have a look-in.

The Puns will make a determined fight to annex their game. Hampton will twirl and from his showing last week should keep the Saints guessing.

The Saints will make their usual game fight and if they go down to defeat the Puns will know they have been playing ball.

Some star plays were made last Saturday.

Don't forget that liner that Akoni Louis annexed in right field near the foul line; it meant a three bagger.

Evers should not be forgotten when throwing around bouquets; he is certainly playing classy ball.

Sam Chill did a great stunt when he corralled that liner with one hand and though he did not save the game for his team, he kept down the score.

Bushnell lost his game through Lo On's and Soares' errors in the sixth.
These boys are not regular offenders and must be expected to make a misstep once in a while.

Eddie Fernandez cost his team the game; he made two bad throws to first that simply sent the balance of the team up in the air.

Eddie Desha stayed in the game one inning too long last Saturday. Hampton is the boy with the right kind of puzzlers and had the Diamonds guessing all the way.

C. C. KRUMBHAAR, OF MAUI POLO TEAM.

FIRST POLO
GAME TODAY

Maui and Oahu Players Will Prove Their Skill in Opening Match.

Polo enthusiasts and a host of others who will probably be enthusiasts are watching the weather anxiously and hoping for a clear afternoon, for today the first of the series of games between the pick of the Maui and Oahu poloists will be played on the Moanalana polo field. Yesterday was wet and the field was soft, but a short spell of sunshine will put it into excellent condition, better in fact for the playing than if a dry spell had been in effect.
Weather conditions being favorable, a grand game is expected, and anticipation runs unusually high. The Maui players have been here for some days and are thoroughly acclimated. Their ponies, the pick of their island, have been exercised and are found not a bit the worse for their change of pasture, and the field has been practised over and whatever about it necessary to be known has been learned.

The local team has been hard at work in practising for the inter-island event for some time and, pitted against each other, have fought several hard practise games, getting themselves and their mounts in perfect form and perfecting their team play and learning each other's style. The Oahu four may be depended upon to uphold the honor of the island in a manner creditable to them and to Oahu.

The game this afternoon will start promptly at three o'clock, by which time it is expected there will be a big crowd assembled along the sidelines of the beautiful Moanalua grounds.

The Maui team will play and ride as follows: S. A. Baldwin, No. 1, Gypsy.
Sure Kela, Reinder, Mori; C. C. Krumbhaar, No. 2, Nioe, Venus, Prospect, Major, Katrina, Aleka; F. F. Baldwin, No. 3, Nigger, Billy Buster, Strawberry, Hawaii; D. T. Fleming, No. 4, Manu, Jubilee, Lucky Haole, Flashlight.

The Oahu boys will play and ride as follows: Dr. Baldwin, No. 1, Pala, Ma-damoiselle, "Gov." Frear, Flash; J.
Fleming, No. 2, Cocktail, Grandma, Charcoal, Lassic; W. Dillingham, No.
3, Stumpy, W. R. Mana; R. W. Shil-gie, No. 4; Brunette, Gloriana D., Johnnie B. Buck, Mack.

PRINCE CUPID

His Namesake League Plays
First Scheduled Games
Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the first game in the new Kalaniana'ole baseball league series will be played at Aala park. The opening game will not be attended with the formalities hoped for by President A. K. Vierra, however, Charley Chil-lingworth, who was to be behind the bat for the first ball, is catching the gold fever in Nevada and cannot be present and Delegate Kalaniana'ole, who had been asked to step into the box and twist the first bender, is on Hawaii and has written that he cannot be present.
The Delegate's letter was as follows:

Kailua, Aug. 4, 1907.
A. K. Vierra, Pres. K. B. League,
Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir:—Through you as president of the above league, I take pleasure in offering for competition by the different clubs of the league, a silver cup.
The same to be won outright by a club who in any two or more seasons shall win the same twice.

Hoping to see the best club win, I remain, with aloha nui, Very truly yours,
J. KALANIANA'OLE.

P. S.—Am sorry to say that I will be unable to attend the opening of your league on the 11th inst. Hoping it success for all time, I remain, K.

The officers of the Kalaniana'ole league are the following:

President, A. K. Vierra; vice president, J. Asing; secretary, A. Guerrero; treasurer, M. T. Marshall, Jr.; and the following team representatives: Ho Tong and Ting Chong, of Chinese Aloha Juniors; M. T. Marshall and J. Nas-cemento, of Twilights Juniors; J. O.
Vierra and M. Gomes, for Kaala A. C.
Juniors; C. S. Wakita and Chas. Notley, Jr., for Kamaunui A. C.; K. Yasamura and K. Sadaaya, for Japanese A. C.
Juniors; and En Yet for Chinese A. C.
Juniors; official scorer, Wm. T. Raposo.

BROKE HIS OWN RECORD

Jamestown Exhibition Grounds, July 27.—In the American Amateur Union aquatic championship contests today, C.
M. Daniels, of New York, broke his own world's record for the fifty-yard swim, going the distance in 25 3-5 seconds, 4-5 of a second faster than his previous record.

THE DECISIVE

The Landsmen and Sailors Will Break the Cricket Tie at Makiki.

At Makiki grounds at 2:30 this afternoon the Honolulu Cricket Club will meet the Restorer eleven in the third match to be played by these clubs this season. A close and interesting game should result, both teams having a victory to their credit.

It would be a difficult matter to predict the winner today, as both teams are very evenly matched. On paper it looks like a sure win for the H. C. C., but the Restorer boys might spring a surprise on the wise ones. Both teams have been hard at practise during the past week, and everyone is eager for the fray.

The first game of the season between these clubs resulted in a substantial victory for the Restorers by a good majority; while in the second encounter the H. C. C., by good, steady playing and not a little luck, had the best of matters, ultimately winning by the narrow margin of some 39 runs. It will be remembered that on this occasion Mr. Broadfoot of the Restorers went out for all. Doubtless he will appear in full warpaint today and endeavor to redeem himself by at least a century to his credit. By cautious playing he can come very close to this figure, and when thoroughly got is one of the deadliest batsmen in Honolulu.

The Honolulu, on the other hand, are not without their heavy hitters, who will be on hand this afternoon to deliver the goods when called upon. All their old reliables will appear in today's game, and in addition their team will be materially strengthened by the inclusion of R. J. Buchly, a brilliant cricketer of long experience.

This game will be well worth going to see, and even considering the counter attractions, a fair crowd will doubtless be on hand to witness these old rivals battle for supremacy.

A limited number of chairs will be reserved for ladies, and the usual supply of refreshments will be served at intervals.

The match will start promptly at 2:30 and the following teams will represent their respective clubs in today's "decisive" game:

Restorer C. C.—Captain Combe, Robb, Wright, Prangwell, Broadfoot (capt.), Thompson, Johnson, Laker, Larnder, Rowell and Whaley.

Honolulu C. C.—Maclean (capt.), Morse, Beardmore, Fiddes, Gill, Jordan, Cockburn, Harwood, Withington, Buchly and Cape. Substitute, C. E.
Edmunds.

Umpire—H. E. Picker.

TENNIS IN
THE RAIN

Two more of the tennis tournament games were played yesterday, in spite of the fact that the courts were not fit to be played upon because of the rain. Early in the games the balls became soaked and dead and the grounds were too slippery for any fast work.

The first game was that between R.
A. Cooke and C. G. Bockus, resulting in a one-sided victory for the former with a score of 6-1, 6-1.

The second game, between H. S. Grey and Dr. Blanchard, was also won in two straight sets, the score being 6-4, 6-4.

Should it be that the weather will not permit of the playing of the polo match this afternoon two more of the tennis games will be pulled off. There are no set matches, however.

In an effort to save the game with Oakland on August 1, Barney Joy went in in the ninth to bat for Quick, and his reception was a good one. Barney is a favorite with the Coast fans, as shown by this note from the Chronicle:
"Barney Joy went into the batter's box for Quick in the last round and was given a rousing reception and was asked to hit it out of the lot. The big kanaka took a hard enough swing at the ball and drove one at Wright like a shot, but the sorrel-topped one made a clever stop and nailed Barney at first."

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and in many instances prove fatal before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned.
The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. Sold by all dealers.
